The telegraph gives us the exciting scene at the termination of the Sickles trial

The Fair.—The Odd Fellows' Fair at Beck-ton Hall continues to be a place of great attraction. We are gratified at this, and hope Dayton Lodge may realize a real benefit.

The "Old Folks" in Concert.—If we thought there was one individual in the city who was not posted with regard to the concert of the "Old Folks" at Huston Hall this evening, or if posted upon the concert, did not have an idea of what the parties are, here they will appear, or what they propose to do, we would endeavor to so plainly elucidate the whole subject that a "wayfaring man, though a fool," could not fail to be enlightened, and interested. We have a better opinion of our readers, however, than to suppose they are not informed about the concert of to-night and to-morrow night; indeed, we have too much respect for the readers of other daily papers to believe they are ignorant of the existence of the "Old Folks," or of the fact of their giving a concert to-night at Huston Hall. We will take it for granted that everybody knows something about the proceedings, and we will add a few particulars, which may have the effect of increasing public interest in the entertainment to-night—if it were possible:

We have musical and vocal talent in Dayton of the very highest order of merit and excellence; it was only necessary to "bring out" this talent in order to have it known and generally appreciated; the desired object was secured by the appearance of the "Old Folks" in public concerts. That they succeeded in pleasing large crowds of people is known to everybody; and it is needless to add that their concerts have been in every way a success. But, notwithstanding this, the members of the Association believe that they can improve upon past efforts; having had experience upon the stage, a number of excellences, comprising everything in the line of a public entertainment, have been suggested; and they now propose to give our citizens the result of all legitimate aids, appliances, etc., necessary to present an unexceptionable performance. We predict that they will succeed, for "we are posted."

The programme for this evening will contain several new pieces; the rehearsal of these, as well as of those given at their former concerts, has given satisfaction to the best critical musical talent in the city. The costumes will be somewhat varied from those formerly worn, and the general effect will be heightened. The concert this evening will be all that almost every cultivated taste could desire; and we feel confident that we will be able to record the universal satisfaction of the audience.

Our testimony in regard to the "Old Folks" and their programme, must be taken by the people as entirely sincere and honest. We can have no possible objection in recommending them other than a conviction of their worthiness and excellence, as we do not even receive from them the usual patronage of printing.

We recommend our patrons—and also those who borrow the reading of the Empire—to at once procure tickets, as the time is short, and they may be too late if they postpone it until they go to the Hall. They are for sale at the Music and Book Stores, and are only 25 cents.

For sometimes past Mr. McDowell has been engaged in G. R. Book Sales, in our city, and up to this time we learn that he has given general satisfaction. Indeed, so favorably has his novel and attractive business been received by this community that he has been induced to remain here, and make a permanent business of it. His sale room is in the New Beckel Building, corner of Third and Jefferson st.

Call and examine his establishment.

The attention of Druggists, physicians, and the community generally is directed to the advertisements of Dr. Stewart, in another column. His Drug Store has always been noted as a superior establishment, but he has now a better stock than ever before. The public can obtain there everything in the line.

Dr. Stewart and Plann have at all times the best quality of fresh and dried meats, country produce, groceries, etc., at the "Preservatory," New Market House. They kill their own cattle, and can afford to sell meat lower than at any other Store. They do sell lower than the butchers. They have some extra butter at 25 cents per pound.

The Scholars of Capt. De Rue, first and second course, are requested to meet at the armory of the Dayton Light Guard, Saturday evening, next.

YOUNG TRAVELER.—Thomas Golden and Henry Frith, two boys about 14 years of age, who came from Lafayette, La., and who have been "stopping" here about ten days with a man named Irving, were arrested and lodged in jail at the instance of Vanasselt, Dixon & Co., last evening, on charge of robbing the safe of $25 in uncurrent money, and notes and papers of value.

The boys had been looting about the street, and before the store door all day, playing very green, and succeeded in slipping into the rear of the store and taking the money and papers, as stated above. The officers got upon their trail, and tracked them to the house of Irving, where they found the notes and papers, but failed to secure the money. Had the little scoundrels got into the safe an hour sooner they would have secured $700 in bankable funds.

The officers also found a large bag and some other things which the "green" boys had stolen from the Provision House of Mr. Cotterman, in Oregon.

The Gazette of this morning says:
"We learn, that John Weitzel has given notice, according to the provisions of the statute, to the Probate Judge, Prosecuting Attorney and Clerk of the Court, of his application for another preliminary examination, to be held before the Probate Court tomorrow. It will be recalled, that he was recommended in default of $700 bail, on the charge of participation in the burglary of H. M. Brown's store. It seems hardly necessary to put the county to the cost of another preliminary trial, when the Grand Jury met in about a month."

If Weitzel is innocent of the charge against him, and his counsel believes he can make it appear, he should have another examination.
This second examination might save the county the cost of a Court trial; and if John is not guilty, it is certainly hard for him to be confined in such a place as the county Jail. His trial before the Mayor did not, we believe, result in his conviction for the offence charged.

Personal.
We had the pleasure of a call from our old friend Jim Kelly, Squire elect of Mad River Township. We are informed that peace reigns in all his borders, and the only official difficulty he has to contend against at present, is to keep Mad River within bounds.

We are happy to learn that our old friend Mr. Samuel Clegg, who returned from his recent trip to Texas, much improved in health and appearance. The report that he was industri-ously circulated, during his absence, that he had been sent to the Ohio Reformatory for the purpose of raising sheep and field hands, with the design of raising sheep and field hands, is totally untrue, as Mr. C. values his anti-slavery principles too highly to engage in any such transaction.

The proprietors of the New York Mercury have secured the services of Edward Taylor, and have pitted him against Edward Everett, as a public attraction. Bonner seeing at a glance that the Mercury had the biggest lion, immediately applied to Charles Dickens, (with a big fee), and succeeded in engaging him to write tales for the Ledger. If Bonner had only thought of that before, he could have saved the $10,000 he nearly threw away on Everett!

On the night of the 26th inst., the store room of Fullington & Garwood, in Millford, Union Co., was entered and robbed of a portion of the most valuable goods. A short time previous their warehouse was also entered by thieves. Messrs. F. & G. had just received a new stock of goods from the East.

UNUSUAL.—A man was found in the street last night so drunk that he could not give any account of himself. He was taken to the Station, when it was found that he had money enough to pay expenses of arrest, a pretty round fine, and a balance left to take him out of the city!

We regret to learn that the work upon a good many buildings has been suspended on account of the scarcity of brick. The supply left over from last year has been exhausted, and the weather has been so bad that the brick-makers have made little headway this season.

The workmen are busily engaged upon St. Mary's Church, on the hill in the eastern part of the city. It will be completed this season, and will be one of the best church edifices in this Valley.

One of the horses attached to a tow-line of a canal boat, was dragged off the tow-path, just south of Jefferson street bridge last night, and came near drowning before it was got out.
The water being very swift at that point, and the tow-path narrow, great care has to be used by drivers.

Turner, who stole a watch on last Friday night from the house of his employer, Mr.
Hawker, on the Xenia pike about 3 miles from the city, was arrested in Xenia last evening, we are informed. He was detected in trying to sell a watch answering the description of Hawker's.

We learn from the Wilmington Watchman that W. S. Foot, Esq., has been associated in publishing and editorial control of that paper. His salutary evinces considerable talent—that kind essential to a readable newspaper.

The Wilmington Watchman informs us that a Lodge of the Sons of Malta has been instituted in that place; and that the Order has secured the only good hall in that place. The "Sons" don't stand around loose.

We were favored with a terrible sunburn this morning—premonitory symptom of returning warmth and seasonable weather. Continuous sunshine for about two weeks would be a blessing which would make society grateful.

The News by the steamer just in does not give any additional information of interest. The war spirit is still stirring, and it is said that a collision is inevitable.

Bob Turbyville, well known in police circles, was arrested and put in jail last night, on charge of stealing a pair of boots from Christopher's Auction Room.

Ma. KOTRO.—Mother Goose, in one of her ancient poems, has said that little boys were made of

"Snubs and snails,
And poppy heads;
She also says that little girls are made of "Sugar and spice,
And everything nice;
I think if the good old lady could have lived in this age, to have seen her little boys and girls; (who are now young ladies and gentlemen) she would have said of the ladies they are made of "The bones of whales,
And cotton tails;
And of the gentlemen—
"Gold chains, and canes, But very true."

FATHER GANDER.

THE DEVIL'S ANALYST OF THE SOUL, or A YAN-KEE.—The Devil is a wonderfully skilful chemist, and knows how to analyze all substances, whether material or spiritual. In a few minutes he created a furnace, seized one of our Yankees, and disintegrated from the body that which in these animals supplies the place of a soul. It stood up before us, a thing utterly strange and indescribable. He put it into a large crucible, reduced it to a fluid mass, and then separated the component parts. It consisted of—

Parts in a Thousand.
Cunning 125
Hypocrisy 195
Avarice 195
Falseness 125
Selfishness 125
Nameless and numberless small vices 140
Essence of onions, New England rum, molasses and codfish 1,000

"There," said the Devil, holding it up, "do you call that a soul?"

Some of our contemporaries are talking about a Republican party! There is no such party in existence. There is, however, a faction of the opposition who delight to style themselves Republicans. It is a harmless fancy which we do not care to disturb.

A Democrat of Clarke county, in the Ohio Statehouse of this morning suggests the name of Judge James M. Hunt of Springfield, as a suitable person for the office of Secretary of State. Mr. H. is an able and unswerving Democrat, and, as such, is well qualified for the position. He is an able lawyer (an unbounded popularity, and would add strength to the ticket and honor to the Democratic party.

VIRGILIAN WAX.—The American ship Florence, of Boston, Capt. Dumaresq, has recently arrived at London, with a new article of commerce, a cargo of vegetable wax from Japan. This is the first of this kind of wax ever brought to London, and it is thought will prove a profitable trade—this vessel having made a hundred per cent on her cargo.

WHEAT CROP IN INDIANA.—We make the following extract from a business letter from a valued friend, who resides in Miami county, Ind.:
"The wheat crop here looks fine. There was more snow here than fell there any preceding year; and from present indications, I think we will have a heavy and abundant crop when the coming harvest." A. H."

We learn that there was a "pasee at arms" at the corner of Main and 3d streets last evening. We learn that a fishing rod was between the parties.

DIVIDING ONE'S TIME.—Some plodding genius has discovered, while spending his own time, that the word TIME itself, when artificially transposed, or metamorphosed, will form the following words: meet, only, item.
And if the afore-said words, and its anagrams be placed in the following quadrangle position, they will form what may be termed an ana-grammatical palindromic:

TIME
ONLY
MEET

This word, TIME, is the only word in the English language which can be thus arranged; and the different transpositions thereof are all, at the same time, Latin words. These words, as well as the word itself, may be read either upwards or downwards.

REPLACEMENTS FOR CHURCHMEN.—First.
To order the great blessing of having constant places for the public worship of God.

Second. The great sin of neglecting public worship; as also the evils and judgments which generally follow such neglect.

Third. The great regard and reverence which Christians ought to have for places dedicated to the honor and service of God.

Fourth. Their behavior should be in such holy places.

Fifth. The great blessing of a regular, settled ministry.

Sixth. The command of God that his ministers shall have all just encouragement to discharge their duty cheerfully and faithfully.

Lastly. The sin and punishment of those who go about to make void this gracious design of God for the good of his people, as well as for the support of his own ministry.

In one of the small commercial towns of New England there lived, some sixty years ago, an African slave, who, by his industry and perseverance, had acquired a very good position, and was the head of one family.

One Friday morning, walking along the road of his race, with head buried in his coat collar, he met a lawyer more distinguished for pomposity than brains.

"Good morning, Pompey," said the lawyer.

"Good morning, Massa C—"

"What makes you carry your head down so, Pompey? Why don't you walk with your head up, like me?"

"Well, you ever bin tro' a field of wheat when it ripe?"

"Yes, Pompey."

"Well, you take notice, some of de heads tan up, and some hang down; den tan up got no grain 'em."

BISHOP DOANE SINGING.—The Newark Advertiser of last evening regrets to learn by telegraphic dispatches from Burlington, that Bishop Doane's disease has changed for the worse, and his physicians regard his recovery as doubtful, and almost hopeless.

The Newark Mercury, of this morning says:

"During the day he was very restless, and his mind sometimes wandered, though his mental vigor did not seem to be much impaired. His disease has assumed a typhoid nature, and his recovery is regarded as very doubtful. He is surrounded by a large number of friends from all parts of the State, who manifest the deepest concern at his condition."

An act in relation to the New York press, passed by the late Legislature, provides that it shall be unlawful for any owner, lessee, manager, or official of any theater in the city of New York to admit to any theatrical exhibition held in the evening any minor under the age of fourteen years, unless such minor is accompanied by and is in the care of some adult person. The law makes any person violating this provision guilty of a misdemeanor, and liable to a fine of not less than $25 nor more than $100, or imprisonment for a term of not less than thirty nor more than ninety days, for each offense.

"I am very sorry," said a learned judge to a young woman, who hesitated much in giving some very unpleasant evidence, "I am very sorry to have to enforce such an examination as this; it must, of course, be painful to any decent person, but the ends of justice require it, and not only so, but all the well-dressed females you see on either side of me, have come a long way to hear that which pains you so much to utter."

NEWS ITEMS.

On Thursday, a laborer named Sullivan, while on an altercation with a fellow laborer on board the John Isham, a resident of coal port, Co. Cork, and a very worthy young man was killed on Friday last, the accidental falling upon him of a large rock in a coal pit near Dresden.

On the night of the 14th a crevasse was formed at the mouth of Red River, which admitted the water in such a torrent that, unless quickly stopped, would prove most devastating to the adjacent lands. Negroes went out to work at re-filling, but we have not heard whether the gap has been stopped or not.
